From Our Pastor

Here we have arrived at the end of our Advent pilgrimage on this Fourth week of Advent, which uniquely lasts but a day this year. The Vigil for the Solemnity of the Nativity of our Lord (Christmas) falls on the same day as the Fourth Sunday of Advent. The Church celebrates the Lord's birth in proximity to the winter solstice. After this date the days start to become a little longer, and thus it is at the beginning of the Season of Christmas, or the beginning of the Season of "Light entering the world" (cf. John 1:5). The summer solstice—after which the days begin to get a little shorter—falls near June 24th, on which the Church celebrates the birth of John the Baptist; who aptly declared of Christ, "He must increase, but I must decrease" (John 3:30). For us living in the northern hemisphere, this gradual increase in daylight reflects the desired spiritual increase of the "Light of Christ" growing in our lives and thus is symbolically revealed in nature. It is my hope and prayer that as we continue our pilgrimage of faith, we will indeed reflect more of Christ's light in our world in which so many seem to long to move out of the shadows and darkness of sin, and seek to bask in the glow and warmth of Christ's light of truth. To assist us in our efforts, as promised, I am so pleased to announce the dates for our upcoming Teaching Masses. Each of these teaching sessions are "stand-alone", i.e. the same material will be covered at each session and are not a part of a series. The first will be on Tuesday, January 16th (7:30-9:00pm); the second on Wednesday, January 24th, (3:30-5:00pm); the third on Saturday, January 27th (10-11:30am); and the fourth, Sunday, January 28th (4:00-5:30pm). I hope you and your family can attend one of these sessions. We will attempt to explain why we do what we do at Mass in a step-by-step manner as if we were present at Mass, but without the words of consecration.

I am also please to announce that we are in the process of forming two new distinct groups here at SEAS, one for Young Adults (ages 21-40) and the other a support group for those who are Separated, Widowed and Divorced. If you are interested in becoming a part of either of these, please contact our new Liaison to Parish Groups, Violet LaVille at violet.laville@seas.org or (703) 494-4008 ext. 133. Stay tuned for more information in the months ahead.

Also I wanted to remind everyone of our new (6) Bulletin/Newspaper Racks at each entrance/exit of the church. We encourage everyone to take home and read our weekly Parish Bulletin, and also an Arlington Catholic Herald Newspaper, and for those ages 3-8 to please feel free to take our new weekly Children's Bulletin located on the lowest rack. On behalf of Fr. Perez, Deacon Rob and our entire parish staff, I want to wish everyone a blessed and very Merry Christmas and a grace-filled New Year.

~Fr. Bashista

Fourth Sunday of Advent Weekly Reflection:

The Lord himself will give you this sign: the virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall name him Emmanuel' (Is 7:14).

This well known affirmation by the prophet Isaiah announces the coming of the Messiah into human history. It already gives us a taste of the proximity of that marvelous day which will be the 'dies natalis' of Jesus. It was foretold by the prophets and proclaimed throughout the whole of Sacred Scriptures that He would be the One who would fulfill and bring them to completion. Our God will be incarnated and born due to the generous willingness of the 'Virgin' who, from the very beginning of time, was chosen to be the Mother of the Savior.... Wake up, therefore, because the birth of the Lord is almost at hand, let us go to meet Him in His glory: to listen to him, to love Him and to follow Him!

Stewardship

"Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you!" - LUKE 1:28

Faith is a gift from God. Take time in silence and thank Him for all the gifts He has given you. Try to set aside any anger or resentment you have and really open your heart to receive the gift of God's mercy and forgiveness. We can't give what we don't have. We need to receive God's mercy and forgiveness first before we can give it to others.

Join us for a Teaching Mass

Curriculum: Jesus, the Suffering Servant Part 2 (Mark 9-16)

by Stephen J. Binz

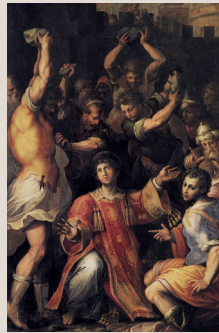

This second half of Mark's Gospel explores the implications of being disciples of Jesus. As participants in this study, you will realize that Jesus can only be fully understood on the cross as he gives his life for the redemption of all people and that you cannot follow Jesus until you accept the necessity of the cross in your own life.

Sunday, January 7th: Sunday AM Scripture Group continues; 10:30am-12:00pm in Trinity 3.

Evangelization

Christmas Season & Living the Faith

Welcome to the beginning of the Christmas season which begins with the vigil Masses on Christmas Eve and concludes on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. During this season, we celebrate the birth of Christ into our world and into our hearts, and reflect on the gift of salvation that is born with him...including the fact that he was born to die for us. So why immediately after celebrating Jesus' birth, does the Church celebrate the martyrdom of St. Stephen (December 26)? St. Stephen is the first Christian martyr, who worked "great wonders" and had "the face of an angel." Stephen was among seven deacons chosen to help the widows in Jerusalem's Hellenistic community. But the wonders he worked rattled local Jewish leaders, which ultimately resulted in St. Stephen being stoned to death. Are you willing to die for your faith? Does your Catholic way of life rattle your leaders - bosses, coworkers, neighbors, family members? Shouldn't it? Jesus loves you; He gave His life to save you; and now He is living at your side every day to strengthen and free you. During Advent, we prepared for the birth of Christ; are we prepared for his second coming? Something to pray about as you prepare for the secular new year and make your New Year's resolutions.

Human Concerns

Thank you to everyone who donated needed underwear, socks, shampoo, and puzzles to the PWC Drop-In Center through the Tag Tree Program. Your generosity in remembering those experiencing homelessness is greatly appreciated!

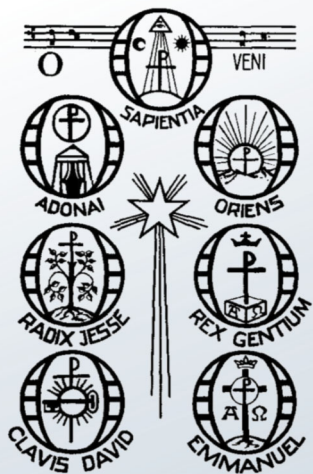

SEAS is now collecting religious articles and prayer cards (i.e. items that charities often include with their requests for donations such as rosaries, key chains, medals, etc.). These religious items will be given to a friend of the parish who will send them to overseas missions. Please place these items in the marked bins just outside the Parish office. Thank you!

The St. Lucy Project Feeding the Hungry, Nourishing the Soul

Continuing through January 3rd, SEAS will be collecting food for the St. Lucy Project, the food pantry for Catholic Charities. A list of the most needed items is available by the collection bin.

* You may have noticed the new collection bins (and their new location!) which have replaced the old brown bins, now making it easier to drop off your donations.

Sacred Music

O Emmanuel

Those who participated in the Faith Foundation series this past Thursday learned about the Great Antiphons of Advent, known as the “O Antiphons,” which are texts from vespers (evening prayer) during the final days of Advent. They constitute the verses for our hymn, “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel.” For a brief summary of these antiphons, their history and symbolism, visit <https://rebrand.ly/oant>. And to hear the music accompanying these texts, visit <https://rebrand.ly/oantm>.

Attending Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve fulfills the Christmas obligation only.*
