FROM OUR PAROCHIAL VICAR

If you've ever been involved in building a church, there are many details that must be taken into consideration. While its a blessing that such projects are being initiated in our Diocese since we all appreciate beautiful churches, it must be said that you need a detailed and gifted organizer. In a word: "Don't call Fr. Dort! Call Fr. Bashista!"

So many important decisions need to be taken into consideration in order that the Sanctuary may be a fit dwelling place for Christ, the King. Yet, did you know that each time we pray, we are building a Church! By our preparation for Mass; through our cultivation of silent recollection; we are building the inner Church of our own hearts so that Christ may dwell therein. And if this sounds like it's too much, listen to St. Peter! Speaking to the Early Christians, he writes: "you also, as living stones, are being built up as a spiritual house for a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices that are acceptable to God through Jesus Christ."

Oh yes! As beautiful as the church building may be, the real Church Christ wants to inhabit is the sanctuary of our heart! If you chip the stones of that building, they bleed. Yet there is the question: "How do I build that Church?" Well, I'm glad you asked! Do we prepare our hearts? Do we take time for recollection and silence? What do we do with ourselves in those precious moments after Holy Communion where we are quite literally 'living Tabernacles?' Are we distracted or do we enthrone Christ, and adore Him as He sits on the altar of our hearts?"

Oh ...sometimes we don't know what to say in that moment. If you need some help, I recommend that you look up and pray the beautiful prayer to Christ after Holy Communion, the Anima Christi. I remember when I learned about it. I was at St. Louis and I used to visit a man who was bedridden for 20 years. He had a stroke, and his life was very difficult. But, he made the decision that he was going to offer his sufferings in union with Christ. He would request that I visit him on first Fridays at 3:00pm, the hour Christ died on the cross.

Now, I am not canonizing him, but I remember being very impressed. I would arrive at 3:00pm and he was almost always watching Gibson's film: "The Passion of the Christ." Only once did I catch him watching "Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom!" and I teased him a bit....gave him a hard time. And after he would receive communion, he would pray those beautiful words with great devotion. I can still hear his voice praying the words of the Anima Christi. Wouldn't it be a beautiful way to speak to the Lord in those precious moments?

Let's say from the depths of our hearts:
"Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me.
Permit me not to be separated from you.
From the wicked foe, defend me.
At the hour of my death, call me
and bid me come to you
That with your saints I may praise you
For ever and ever. Amen."

— Father Dort

WEEKLY REFLECTION

To Give and to Receive

"Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated" (Jn 6:11). Jesus receives the bread from our hands. Earlier, the bread was just bread and nothing more. When it reaches the hands of Jesus, it receives a new, invisible character. From now on, the bread must be given out forever. Everything that has passed through the hands of Jesus is clothes in his love, and love will always flow without boundaries or measure.

Jesus receives five small loaves from a boy in the crowd. When he later distributes them, they have a whole new quality. This wonderful exchange happens in a unique way in the Eucharist.

The Church, humankind, offers its small gifts to God. God receives them, transforms them and gives them back with an infinitely richer content.

At the presentation of the gifts, the priest says: "blessed are you, Lord...through your goodness we have this bread." God has created everything, and without him we would have nothing to present. Everything comes from him. But what we present, God won't keep for himself; he gives it back to us, transformed into the bread of life.

What you give to God-everything in your life that you freely offer to him– you get back in a form so that you can give it to others. Nothing that you give God will be taken from you; God only wants to give it an unlimited capacity to become life and food for many.

More suggestions to celebrate Mary...

Attend a Procession
Processions range from small and solemn to large and boisterous. Search online to find out if there's a procession in your neck of the woods. If not, consider having a procession of your own! All you need is a picture, icon, or statue of the Blessed Virgin, a few friends, and a procession route (i.e., around the block, across campus, around your yard).

Plant a Mary Garden
It is traditional to celebrate the Feast of the Assumption by bringing the summer harvest to be blessed. The first fruits — herbs, tomatoes, summer squash, etc. — are often associated with the Feast of the Assumption both because of the time of year and because Mary was the first believer in Jesus to experience the promised resurrection. She is the first fruit of a great coming harvest. This year, celebrate her Assumption Day by planting a Mary garden of your own. If you live in an apartment or dorm, consider a potted Mary garden in your window with a small statue or image of Our Lady and container full of potted herbs and flowers.

Eat!
Oh, how we love to have something special to eat for a feast day! It could be a picnic, cookout, a formal sit down dinner, or a tea party. Add a "Hail Mary" or "Hail Holy Queen" to your meal blessing. Have fun! Be joyful! This is a day of celebration!

Celebrating The Assumption of The Blessed Virgin Mary

Go to Mass
The Assumption is a Holy Day of Obligation, which means Catholics are obligated to attend Mass this day. Make it a priority to get to Mass, Sunday, August 15th. We gather to show our love and affection for Our Blessed Mother and by doing so we bring glory to her Son.

Seton Sentinels

We are forming a Women's Ministry here at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish, The Seton Sentinels. The reference is to St. John Paul II's phrase "Sentinels of the Invisible":

> "A sentinel is a person who stands guard or watch, especially a soldier standing guard at a point of passage." - The Supreme Vocation of Women by Melissa Maleski

St. John Paul II believed that women were not just persons who stood watch over the invisible God, but that they were soldiers who stood at the very passage between God and His likeness in mankind.

Through feminine genius , the Bible tells of the strength of women.

Please come and participate in a grass roots effort , brainstorming what is wanted/needed/desired concerning Women's Ministry here at Seton Lakeridge.
