Fr. Jack Riley

Fr. Jack Riley has been a priest for over 30 years, serving in the Arlington Diocese, in Denver, and beyond. He has taught and led hundreds of conferences, missions, and retreats for priests, religious sisters, and laity around the country and as far afield as Calcutta, India. His first love is helping people Find Jesus Christ by "treasuring and pondering" the Gospels in deep quiet prayer. Carmelite Spirituality and the life and experience of St. Therese of Lisieux permeate his courses and spiritual conferences. Fr. Riley currently serves as Spiritual Director for the Arlington Diocese's San Damiano Retreat Center in White Post, VA.

Quiet your soul and breathe this Lent, opening yourself up to receive the incomprehensible blessings found when engaging in conversation with our Mother, who radiates all goodness and advocates for us in untold ways.
