FROM OUR PAROCHIAL VICAR

Okay, here is the fourth part of a reflective version the Our Father. I hope that is helping you to really think about what it is that you are saying when you pray! Add this to the last three columns, and then read/say/PRAY them one-after-the-other with someone else: one of you as the "PERSON" and the other as "GOD".

REFLECTIVE VERSION OF THE LORD'S PRAYER (Part 4)

PERSON: "Give us this day, our daily bread."

GOD: YOU NEED TO CUT OUT THE BREAD. THOSE EXTRA CARBS ARE NOT DOING YOU ANY FAVORS, YOU KNOW!

PERSON: Hey, wait a minute! What is this? Here I was doing my religious duty, and all-of-a-sudden you break in and remind me of all my hang-ups.

GOD: PRAYING IS A DANGEROUS THING. YOU JUST MIGHT GET WHAT YOU ASK FOR. REMEMBER, YOU CALLED ME – AND HERE I AM: IN THE EUCHARIST YOU RECEIVE, THE SCRIPTURES YOU READ, AND THE PRAYERS YOU SAY. IT'S TOO LATE TO STOP NOW. KEEP PRAYING ... (pause) ... WELL, GO ON.

PERSON: I'm scared to.

GOD: SCARED? OF WHAT?

PERSON: I know what you'll say.

GOD: TRY ME.

WEEKLY REFLECTION

The End Is the Beginning

Jesus mentions war, persecutions, earthquakes, famine, and cosmic catastrophes as signs that will precede his return. These events have happened throughout history. Many times people thought that the end was near. But the world is still here.

Yet, these signs can teach us a great deal. The second coming of Christ is not the last link in a long, positive, straight evolution. To be sure, our task is to try to build up the kingdom of love and peace here on earth. But we will never completely succeed. It is not possible all conflicts will be resolved and all fractures healed.

Only a few decades ago, people lived in an illusion that technical progress would make all the causes behind strife and war disappear on their own. Everyone would have enough to eat, everyone would be fine. Nothing much is left of that illusion.

The closer we get to the end, the greater the confusion, chaos, hate, and war. This is Jesus' view of history. It appears pessimistic, but it isn't. When this old world is over, it is not yet over. Then the Lord comes, and with him a new heaven and a new earth, not built by human hands but by him.

HOPE AND HEALING WORKSHOP

Saturdays | 9:30am – 11:00am | Bayley's Cellar

Everyone of us goes through suffering and for many, it can be a stumbling block to faith in God and the catalyst to an unhappy life. But it doesn't have to be this way.

Join us for 4 Saturday morning sessions to explore resources from Dr. Bob Schuchts, founder of the John Paul II Healing Center. This workshop will help to offer hope to life's difficult questions concerning the meaning of suffering. Dissecting physical pain (with Jesus as our model), emotional loss (through the intercession of Our Lady of Sorrows), and spiritual guilt (with St. Peter as our example), we will discover the underlying purpose of our sorrows and see how they can be a means of drawing closer to God.

Proximity- Children are allowed to draw close to the Sanctuary, pray on the floor near the altar, or sit in the front pew. However, please do not go up on the altar/steps Silence- Children may read Bible stories, prayer books, look at images/ stories about Saints, and use colored pencils to draw religious images, etc.

National Vocations Awareness Week

"The Catholic Church in the United States will commemorate National Vocation Awareness Week, November 5-11. Each year, national Catholic organizations, dioceses, schools, and local parish communities sponsor events and provide different resources to raise awareness for vocations, and help those who are discerning a vocation, particularly one to ordained ministry or consecrated life.

In his message for the 60th anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Francis stated, "Our common vocation to give ourselves in love develops and finds concrete expression in the life of lay men and women, devoted to raising a family as a small domestic church and working as the leaven of the Gospel to renew the different sectors of society; in the testimony of consecrated women and men who are completely committed to God for the sake of their brothers and sisters as a prophetic sign of the kingdom of God; in ordained ministers – deacons, priests, and bishops – placed at the service of preaching, prayer and fostering the communion of the holy People of God."" STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION: THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." Matthew 23:12

The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions is the key to happiness. Yet, our world is filled with more loneliness, anxiety and depression than ever before. The key to a happy life is relationship. Relationship with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.

They are seeking sponsors for each day of their pilgrimage and their prayers will be for your intentions on that day!
