FROM OUR DEACON

Holy Mass is the greatest act of worship that we, as human beings, can give to God. No matter how many other prayers we offer or whatever praise we give to God, nothing compares in any sense to the value and the power of the Mass. The Mass is God's plan for our worship of Him. It is during the Mass that God the Son, through the power of the Holy Spirit, offers to God the Father the perfect sacrifice of His very Self. Nothing human can possibly match this.

It is during the Mass that the Lord Jesus feeds us with His Body and Blood: no mere symbol, but the reality of His Presence, not bread and wine in any sense other than their appearance, once those simple elements have been consecrated, but His true flesh, His true blood, His soul, and His divinity. Through the power of the same Holy Spirit who brought all things into existence out of nothing, the humble offerings of bread and wine become God Himself. This is what we believe as Catholics. We believe that the Holy Eucharist is Jesus, not a thing, not a symbol, not a sign, but God, the true God, the living God.

For this reason, this Holy Eucharist is deserving of our greatest respect and our deepest devotion. We show the Eucharistic Jesus the most profound reverence and care, we kneel and bow before Him, we respect silence and prayerfulness in His presence. While there is a loving familiarity on our part in regard to His Eucharistic Presence, we must avoid at all costs a casual attitude to this Sacrament because it is here, in the Holy Eucharist, in the celebration of the Mass, in the reception of Holy Communion, that God has chosen to unite Himself to us, to enter into us, to become one with us.

In the Mass, He gives us a foretaste of what we hope to have in Heaven for ever.

But the exchange is not to be one-sided. As God gives Himself to us there is an expectation, on His part, that we too will give ourselves to Him, that we will offer our lives to Him just as He has offered His life for us. It is in receiving Him in

Holy Communion and drawing from this holy Sacrament all graces possible, that we are enabled to do this. In giving Himself to us, Jesus gives us all we require to be able to give ourselves back to Him in return and to live for Him above all things. As God transforms bread and wine into Himself, so in receiving Holy Communion He offers us the possibility of being transformed into Him too. Today we honor the Blessed Sacrament, the Body and Blood of the Lord in this Feast of Corpus Christi, but as Catholics, that honor, that love, that desire for intimacy with the Eucharistic Jesus is something to be nurtured each day of our lives, especially through Holy Mass.

WEEKLY REFLECTION

Without Spirit the Letter is Dead

The Christian tradition has always held that the text of the Bible has both a literal and a spiritual meaning.

In the Book of Revelation, John speaks about a scroll written both in the front and the back (5:1). The Vulgate translates this: "scritum intus et foris" — written in full, inside and out. The tradition has recognized the Bible in this scroll. On the back — or outside — the text is written according to the Spirit. To truly understand the text, one must go from the outside to the inside.

When you read God's word, don't satisfy yourself with the literal meaning, but seek also the spiritual. This spiritual meaning is not something arbitrary that you read into the text based on your own comprehension; it has a structure, its own objectives grounding. It isn't separated from the letter, but less hidden in it.

The literal meaning is good and indispensable, since it is what takes you to the spiritual meaning. The letter is the tool and servant of the spirit. But if you don't reach the spiritual meaning, you are reading the Scriptures without comprehension. Remember the Ethiopian court official (Acts 8:30-31). That which the Bible — the Old Testament — recounts, which often deals with historical facts, is not a completed reality; on the contrary, it is dynamic, open, and alive. In various texts of the Bible, God is not about to lead you away from the historical reality, but into the center of reality.

CORPUS CHRISTI EUCHARISTIC PROCESSION

Sun., June 2 | 3:00pm – 4:00pm | Parish Grounds

Also known as the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, this feast day is celebrated to commemorate the institution of the Holy Eucharist and honor Jesus Christ, truly and substantially present through the Eucharist.

Through transubstantiation at the Consecration of the Mass, this Presence happens and the church fulfills the mandate of Christ, who on the evening before His death instituted the Holy Eucharist and commissioned his disciples: "Do this in remembrance of me." Join us as we process around the parish grounds for this celebration.

She will explain how embracing our true relationship with God can bring color into our lives and transform every aspect of it, allowing us to receive the gifts (charisms) and fruits of the Holy Spirit that He gives us.

She will also discuss the three common sources from which we typically seek our identity and how we can instead draw our true identity from the deep and intimate relationship God invites us into as members of His eternal family.

PRAYING LIKE THE ANCIENT FATHERS: MEN'S AND WOMEN'S RETREAT

Friday – Sunday, June 21-23 | San Damiano Retreat Center

Join Father Juan Puigbó, Pastor of St. Leo the Great Parish, for a unique men's and women's silent retreat. The first Christians faced many challenges from political and spiritual adversaries. The needs of the early Church were very pressing, but Christians learned very soon to trust in the Lord Jesus, their Savior. They took the Gospel so very much to heart that they surrendered their lives to Christ by dying as martyrs or by fleeing to the desert as monastics. Either way, their strong relationship with the living God made them giants of Christian spirituality—an excellent example for us in today's troubled world.

This silent retreat begins at 5 p.m. on Friday, June 21, and ends at 1 p.m. on Sunday, June 23. Retreat cost is $285 per person. For further information or to register, please contact Deacon Mark Maines at mark.maines@arlingtondiocese.org.

SEEKING FRIENDSHIP WITH CHRIST: A SILENT RETREAT FOR MEN AND WOMEN

Seeking friendship with Christ as Sons and Daughters of Our Father
Friday – Sunday, July 12-14 | San Damiano Retreat Center

Prayer is the most proper activity of a baptized soul. As breathing is a necessary part of bodily life, so prayer is the respiration in life of grace. Prayer may be understood simply as opening the will to God – but as simple as this may seem, it is not always easy to live.

Join Fr. Daniel Hanley, coordinator of the blessed Stanley Rother House of formation at Mount St. Mary's Seminary, at the Arlington Diocese's San Damiano Retreat Center in White Post, VA and set aside time to understand the life of God within us and open ourselves to the movement of prayer. True prayer always comes from and returns to the Eucharist and bears the fruit of love of God and of neighbor. Our goal in this retreat is to form practical resolutions to help us to live in more constant union with Jesus.

This silent retreat begins at 5:00pm on Friday, July 12, and ends at 1:00pm on Sunday, July 14. Retreat cost is $285 per person and financial assistance may be available. For further information or to register, please contact Deacon Mark Maines at mark.maines@arlingtondiocese.org

Fr. Daniel Hanley is the fourth of six children from a Catholic family. He was ordained in 2005 and has served as parochial vicar in several parishes in the Arlington Diocese. Fr. Hanley has also served as a teacher and faculty member at the North American College in Rome and is currently the coordinator of the blessed Stanley Rother House of formation at Mount St. Mary's Seminary in Maryland.

FINDING JESUS WITH ST. FRANCIS AND CLARE: A SILENT RETREAT FOR MEN & WOMEN

Friday – Sunday, July 19-21 | San Damiano Retreat Center

Saints Francis and Clare of Assisi have fascinated the world for centuries. How can active men and women in the world draw nearer to Our Lord by learning from their Wisdom, imitating their charity, and finding little ways to embrace their poverty? Join Father John Riley and a small band of brothers and sisters at the Arlington Diocese's San Damiano Retreat Center in White Post, VA as we gather in a silent retreat at the feet of Jesus to consider how to follow Francis and Clare to Christ; in His Crib... and on His Cross.

Retreat cost is $285 per person and financial assistance may be available. For further information or to register, please contact Deacon Mark Maines at mark.maines@arlingtondiocese.org
