FROM OUR PASTOR

On behalf of all the sons and daughters of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish, young and old, on this MOTHER'S DAY I extend a heartfelt-thank you to all our mothers for everything that you do, and the love that you share. May God shower you with an abundance of His blessings for all of your tireless efforts to shepherd and guide the lives of the children, grandchildren and all of God's children entrusted to your care!

A big congratulations to our 39 FIRST COMMUNICANTS who received Jesus in this Most Holy and Blessed Sacrament for the first time on Saturday, May 11th. May the excitement and joy that you have experienced continue each and every time you receive Jesus in Holy Communion. I extend a heartfelt thank you to the parents, family members, Mrs. Kris Fischer, Mrs. Mylene Garcia, and all our parents and Small Group Facilitators who have faithfully and tirelessly dedicated themselves to preparing our children for the Blessed Sacrament. May God send you an abundance of His blessings for all of your many efforts!

WEEKLY REFLECTION

The Source of Love

Many people aren't particularly interested in God. But there is probably no one who is not interested in love. This interest may be distorted – love can be sought where it can't be found. Still, it is love which, more than anything, occupies us in all that we do and are. Literature, art, theater, movies – everything focuses on love, and it can't be any other way. The human being has an innate longing for love; to be human is to long for love. God is love. Where love is found, there is God.

It is God who stirs this human hunger, and it is God alone who ultimately can satisfy it. Even where God is not known, love between human beings can be deep, true, faithful. In this case, it is divine and has its origin in God. Still, the human heart can never find complete rest until it has come to know the source of love. The source is inexhaustible. In God there is always more love to be had. And it is precisely God's infinity that can satisfy our hunger for love. No matter how great and beautiful human love may be, it only attains its true value if we have found the origin of love. God will not close our hearts to human love, friendship, tenderness, intimacy. But he will open your heart to the love that will never be extinguished or die, and that love exists in him.

DIVING INTO THE DESERT: PRAYING LIKE THE ANCIENT FATHERS

A Silent Retreat for Men and Women

Friday – Sunday, June 21-23

Join Father Juan Puigbó, Pastor of St. Leo the Great Parish, for a unique men's and women's silent retreat. The first Christians faced many challenges from political and spiritual adversaries. The needs of the early Church were very pressing, but Christians learned very soon to trust in the Lord Jesus, their Savior. They took the Gospel so very much to heart that they surrendered their lives to Christ by dying as martyrs or by fleeing to the desert as monastics. Either way, their strong relationship with the living God made them giants of Christian spirituality--an excellent example for us in today's troubled world. Retreat cost is $285 per person. For further information or to register, please contact Deacon Mark Maines at mark.maines@arlingtondiocese.org.

WITNESS THE ORDINATION TO PRIESTHOOD!

Saturday, June 1 | 11:00am | Holy Trinity Catholic Church

The ordination of men to the priesthood is a beautiful and inspiring event for our entire diocese, and all are welcome to witness them. We the faithful celebrate these ordinations because these new priests and deacons make Christ present and the sacraments more available. The ordinations show us that the Holy Spirit is working in the hearts and minds of the people of the diocese, stirring up in men's hearts the desire to follow and imitate Christ. An ordination may mark the end of formation, but it is also the beginning of life as a priest or deacon: a life of generous service to the faithful of the diocese. The Mass of Ordination to the priesthood for Deacons James Joseph and Deacon Sean Nypaver is June 1 at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Gainesville. Come and pray for our future priests! The ceremony will also be livestreamed. Learn more at www.ArlingtonDiocese.org/Ordinations.
