FROM OUR PAROCHIAL VICAR

Although the Ascension of our Lord is a month past, there are still lessons that we can learn from it and apply to our daily lives, especially when the going gets rough! Here is something beautiful that St. Augustine (354-430 A.D.), the bishop of Hippo Regius in Numidia (Roman North Africa), wrote about the Ascension (as found in the Liturgy of the Hours on the Solemnity of the Ascension). Enjoy!

“Today, our Lord Jesus Christ ascended into heaven; let our hearts ascend with him. Listen to the words of the Apostle: If you have risen with Christ, set your hearts on the things that are above where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God; seek the things that are above, not the things that are on earth (Col 3:1-2).

For just as he remained with us even after his ascension, so we too are already in heaven with him, even though what is promised us has not yet been fulfilled in our bodies.

“Christ is now exalted above the heavens, but he still suffers on earth all the pain that we, the members of his body, have to bear. He showed this when he cried out from above: Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? (Acts 9:4b), and when he said: I was hungry and you gave me food (Mt 25:35a).

“Why do we on earth not strive to find rest with him in heaven even now, through the faith, hope and love that unites us to him? While in heaven, he is also with us; and we, while on earth, are with him. He is here with us by his divinity, his power and his love. We cannot be in heaven, as he is on earth, by divinity, but in him, we can be there by love.

“He did not leave heaven when he came down to us; nor did he withdraw from us when he went up again into heaven. The fact that he was in heaven even while he was on earth is borne out by his own statement: No one has ever ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man, who is in heaven (Jn 3:13).

“These words are explained by our oneness with Christ, for he is our head and we are his body. No one ascended into heaven except Christ because we also are Christ: he is the Son of Man by his union with us, and we, by our union with him, are sons of God. So the Apostle says: Just as the human body, which has many members, is a unity, because all the different members make one body, so is it also with Christ (1 Cor 12:12). He too has many members, but one body.

“Out of compassion for us, he descended from heaven, and although he ascended alone, we also ascend, because we are in him by grace. Thus, no one but Christ descended and no one but Christ ascended; not because there is no distinction between the head and the body, but because the body as a unity cannot be separated from the head.”

WEEKLY REFLECTION

Love Makes the Commandments Obvious

The first two commandments in the New Testament, according to the words of Jesus, are to love God with all your might and your neighbor as yourself (Mt 22:37-39). But before giving us these exhortations, Jesus proclaims the good news about God’s love for us.

Jesus doesn't start with demands. “Demands” are only an obvious consequence of the good news about God’s love. As important as the decrees and counsels of Jesus are, they are not the core of the New Testament. It is important that you love God, but it is much more important that God loves you and that you let yourself be loved by him. “We love because he first loved us.” (1 Jn 4:19). The commandments become obvious to anyone who knows himself or herself to be loved and affirmed by God.

Christianity has, at times, been reduced to morality, and its message to moralizing. Our own time, which reacts very strongly to “old-fashioned moralism,” has perhaps ended up in a moralism with a slightly different shape. Nowadays, we don’t talk about practicing the virtues, but of being engaged in the world, politically and socially. There is as much moralizing as before. Turning Christianity into morality, no matter how it is done, is to miss the essential: The good news that God loves us.

A proper development of evangelization, theology, and biblical exegesis will take place only when there is a clear awareness of the most fundamental of all facts: God’s limitless love toward us.

PRAYING LIKE THE ANCIENT FATHERS: MEN'S AND WOMEN'S RETREAT

Friday – Sunday, June 21-23 | San Damiano Retreat Center

Join Father Juan Puigbó, Pastor of St. Leo the Great Parish, for a unique men's and women's silent retreat. The first Christians faced many challenges from political and spiritual adversaries. The needs of the early Church were very pressing, but Christians learned very soon to trust in the Lord Jesus, their Savior. They took the Gospel so very much to heart that they surrendered their lives to Christ by dying as martyrs or by fleeing to the desert as monastics. Either way, their strong relationship with the living God made them giants of Christian spirituality--an excellent example for us in today's troubled world.

This silent retreat begins at 5 p.m. on Friday, June 21, and ends at 1 p.m. on Sunday, June 23. Retreat cost is $285 per person. For further information or to register, please contact Deacon Mark Maines at mark.maines@arlingtondiocese.org.

SEEKING FRIENDSHIP WITH CHRIST: A SILENT RETREAT FOR MEN AND WOMEN

Seeking friendship with Christ as Sons and Daughters of Our Father

Friday – Sunday, July 12-14 | San Damiano Retreat Center

Prayer is the most proper activity of a baptized soul. As breathing is a necessary part of bodily life, so prayer is the respiration in life of grace. Prayer may be understood simply as opening the will to God – but as simple as this may seem, it is not always easy to live.

Join Fr. Daniel Hanley, coordinator of the blessed Stanley Rother House of formation at Mount St. Mary's Seminary, at the Arlington Diocese's San Damiano Retreat Center in White Post, VA and set aside time to understand the life of God within us and open ourselves to the movement of prayer. True prayer always comes from and returns to the Eucharist and bears the fruit of love of God and of neighbor. Our goal in this retreat is to form practical resolutions to help us to live in more constant union with Jesus.

This silent retreat begins at 5:00pm on Friday, July 12, and ends at 1:00pm on Sunday, July 14. Retreat cost is $285 per person and financial assistance may be available. For further information or to register, please contact Deacon Mark Maines at mark.maines@arlingtondiocese.org

Ordained in 2005, Fr. Daniel Hanley is the fourth of six children from a Catholic family and has served as parochial vicar in several parishes in the Arlington Diocese. Fr. Hanley has also served as a teacher and faculty member at the North American College in Rome and is currently the coordinator of the blessed Stanley Rother House of Formation at Mount St. Mary's Seminary in Maryland.

ATTENTION HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR CLASS OF 2024!

Join us for ASJB College Nights! These events are a time for rising college freshmen and transfer students to fortify their Catholic faith before stepping foot on a college campus. The Associates of St. John Bosco (ASJB), a Catholic non-profit in Northern Virginia founded by Fr. These events help rising college freshmen network with other Catholics heading to college, and give students the tools to navigate the often difficult transition of faith life in college. Students hear from upperclassmen who give their personal testimonies about how they transitioned to college and maintained a strong faith life. There are small groups divided by students' universities and students walk away with a free bundle of Catholic books called the "Bosco Bundle" to bring to college that will help them deepen their faith while away at school. The events come with a free pizza dinner, too. Registration is FREE!

FINDING JESUS WITH ST. FRANCIS AND CLARE: A SILENT RETREAT FOR MEN & WOMEN

Friday – Sunday, July 19-21 | San Damiano Retreat Center

Saints Francis and Clare of Assisi have fascinated the world for centuries. Join Father John Riley and a small band of brothers and sisters at the Arlington Diocese's San Damiano Retreat Center in White Post, VA as we gather in a silent retreat at the feet of Jesus to consider how to follow Francis and Clare to Christ; in His Crib... and on His Cross. Please see the QR Code for a one-time electronic contribution to our normal Sunday Offering fund. For those who are unfamiliar with QR Codes, if you open the camera function on your smart device and point it at the 'QR Code', it will generate a 'clickable' link to faithdirect.net on your screen. Enter your name, address, payment information (any major credit card), and contribution amount. Following this, select Process Gift Now at the bottom of the screen and your account will be charged in accordance with the information you provided. Again, this contribution will be for a one-time gift only. If you wish to make regular contributions through Faith Direct, please visit our parish website and select 'donate' on the top of the home page and follow the instructions. For questions, please see my contact info on page 2.

God bless you!
